GeraMond

Dear colleagues and friends,

It has been a very challenging six months for us at GeraNova Bruckmann. In May, the publishing house fell victim to a hacker attack. For the time being, most of its impact has been set aside. During this turbulent time, we did not stop the production of our new books and all of them were published or will be published as planned. I am excited to present you our wonderful Fall 2023 program!

National Geographic will amaze the readers with an incredible illustrated book with the latest high-resolution images from the WEBB telescope. The author of the book, an expert in astronomy, will explain never-before-seen phenomena of the universe.

Frederking & Thaler invites the readers into the fascinating world of feathers. Award-winning photographer duo Heidi and Hans-Jürgen Koch will elaborate on the diversity of shape, structure and function of feathers. The texts on biology, mythology, cultural and scientific history complement the aesthetic of the images.

Bruckmann offers its readers a tour guide to 66 lost and dark places all over Germany. Its captivating and scary stories will describe the special atmosphere of these places, while the tips and GPS coordinates are a great practical guide to the often hidden places.

Christian Verlag inspires the readers to take a culinary journey to Georgia right at their homes. Besides, my colleagues from our cookbook team continue to follow the sustainability trend and show readers that the forest has plenty of ingredients to turn into a fantastic dessert!

Christophorus Verlag has prepared something for our readers, who prefer elegance. A book of stylish knitting designs, all of them to be made of black wool. For the timelessly elegant look!

GeraMond focuses on the machines, without which our modern lives would be unimaginable. Everyone who is fascinated by big machines with diverse purposes, from Unimog to excavators – is invited to discover the right fit in our current program!

Thank you very much to all of you for your support and understanding during this challenging phase.

I am excited to discuss new catalogue's titles with you!

If you would like to take a closer look at them – please do not hesitate to contact me.

Knitting with hand dyed yarns

Colorful sweaters, jackets, scarves & accessories. With Locoporella yarns

Babette Ulmer

These models are absolutely unique, because with hand-dyed yarns no thread is like the other. A beautiful effect of this special yarn is the irregular dyeing. This makes the knitted projects lively and intense. The material of the Locoporella yarns - wool, silk and ramie - is of high quality, and great importance is the animal welfare. So knitting with these yarns is a great idea all round.

- Individual knitted designs

My bright color fun - children paint with watercolors

Gina Reinhardt

Colorful motifs with fingerprints, such as funny butterflies made of cotton pads: they can be easily painted with watercolors. Besides, these images can be used as home deco, greeting and invitation cards or wrapping paper. Children get to know the world of colors in a playful way and can experiment with them. This encourages creativity, develops fine motor skills and concentration in boys and girls. Little artists learn and have a lot of fun at the same time.

Butter for the fish!

North German home cooking. Recipes. Portraits. Stories.

Ralf Niemzig

The traditional North German cuisine is of course a fish cuisine. And it is down-to-earth and simple in the best sense of the word: shrimps, herring and smoked fish play the main roles, accompanied by potato salad, kale or turnips. In this book we discover the fish cuisine in Northern Germany. In addition, young chefs tell us their favorite recipes – from panfish to Labskaus and shrimp soup to cod on cucumber salad.

- The best recipes of the North German home kitchen
- Traditional, down-to-earth and really tasty - that's what the North tastes like
- A culinary trip along the North Sea coast

Germany: famous people - unknown places

Secret places: 60 inspiring destinations

Britta Mentzel, Silke Martin, Axel Pinck

192 pages, 22.5 x 27.1 cm, ~ 280 images

Hardcover

Retail price: €32.99

Publication date: March 2023

Unknown places of famous people

When you think of Rainer Maria Rilke, you think of Prague, Berlin, Paris and Montreux, but certainly not of Worpswede. When you think of Lorient, you think of Berlin, not of Brandenburg an der Havel. Anne Frank is associated with Amsterdam and only marginally with Frankfurt am Main. This travel guide takes its readers to lesser-known places of well-known people, shows them where the personalities have left their mark and what else can be discovered in those Secret Places.

- Rediscovering Germany: in the (unknown) footsteps of famous people
- With anecdotes from the lives of famous persons
- A special selection of city trips, hikes and cultural destinations

Roadtrips Ireland

The ultimate dream roads between Dublin and Donegal

Inka Oesterling

192 pages, 20 x 24.1 cm, ~ 200 images

Junkers G 38: the gentle giant

The world record aircraft with the thick wings
Helmut Erfurth

144 pages, 22.5 x 27.1 cm, ~ 160 images

Retail price: €34.99

Hardcover

Publication date: March 2022

A Junkers aircraft legend revisited

Four engines, huge dimensions, thick wings that could transport cargo and passengers. In other words: the largest passenger aircraft of its time. A technical daring that resulted in a high manufacturing price. In the end, only two machines were built in Germany. Six more followed under license in Japan. It is high time to pay tribute to this aviation sensation with this richly illustrated volume.

- The book on an aviation legend, the largest plane of its time
- Exceptional collection of historical original photographs

101 aviation curiosities you need to know

Andreas Fecker

The author, who is a former flight controller has a lot to tell about the past and present of aviation, about people and planes, about accidents and strokes of luck. Filipino Reginald Chua, for example, had little luck with his home-made parachute. There existed an argument between pilot and co-pilot, which resulted in the plane landing on its belly because the co-pilot was told to keep his mouth shut.
